

Card Kits for Sale

The following card kits are available for sale on a first-come, first-served basis. Any kits that do not sell will eventually be listed online at higher prices to help cover the fees associated with selling through sites such as Etsy, eBay, or possibly even my own website using WooCommerce. No pressure to buy — I just wanted to explain why the prices may be higher later if you happen to see them online in the future. (I still have to figure all of that out!) Remember that No Stamped Images are part of the kits.

Some of the following items are individual card kits, while others are sold as bundles. I will note which kits include instruction sheets and which ones do not.

Thanks!!!
